Skills to Pay the Bills

“Skills to Pay the Bills: Mastering Soft Skills for Workplace Success,” is a curriculum developed by the Department of Labor’s Office of Disability Employment Policy, focused on teaching “soft” or workforce readiness skills to youth, including youth with disabilities.

Created for youth development professionals as an introduction to workplace interpersonal and professional skills, the curriculum is targeted for youth ages 14 to 24 in both in-school and out-of-school environments. The basic structure of the program is comprised of modular, hands-on, engaging activities that focus on six key skill areas:

- Communication
- Enthusiasm and attitude
- Teamwork
- Networking
- Problem solving and critical thinking
- Professionalism

Job Readiness Training

The Youth Program offers eligible youth the opportunity to receive job readiness training, which consists of learning the fundamental expectations that employers have with employees, such as, dressing appropriately for the job, arriving to work ahead of time, notifying the employer of an absence or tardiness, as well as how to work with others.

Work Experience Training

The Youth Program offers eligible youth the opportunity to gain paid or unpaid work experience with a participating employer in your community. Job readiness training is provided to any eligible youth whether or not they are entering a work experience activity.
